CAPT. GREENER PASSES AWAY

Was Last Surviving Member of the Richmond Grays and a Tobacco Dealer.

TO BE BURIED IN RICHMOND

Body Will Leave Hampton Over Chesapeake and Ohio for That City Tomorrow Morning—Gallant Record in Confederate Army—Man of Distinguished Appearance.

Capt. John Henry Greener, a gallant Confederate officer, and for many years one of the leading tobacco manufacturers in Richmond, died in the residence of his son, Mr. Charles H. Greener, in Raleigh avenue, Hampton Heights, yesterday afternoon. Capt. Greener had been a sufferer for more than a year with heart trouble.

The body will be taken to Richmond tomorrow morning and the burial will be made in Hollywood cemetery.

Rev. A. O. Sykes, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Newport News, of which Captain Greener had been a communicant since coming here, will conduct the services at the grave.

His Long Record.

Captain Greener was born in Richmond, June 13, 1824, and was therefore little more than 81 years old at the time of his death. He was the son of the late William Greener, for many years engaged in the tobacco business.

When the Civil War broke out, Captain Greener entered the service of the Confederacy as captain of Company H, First Virginia Infantry. He served throughout the entire war, taking part most conspicuously in many of the big battles. He was in Colonel Skinner's regiment.

Promoted to Major.

About a year before the close of the war Captain Greener was promoted to major, but shortly after receiving his promotion was taken a prisoner near Appomattox and carried to Johnson's island, where he remained until the close of the conflict.

Returning to Richmond after the war Captain Greener again took up the tobacco business and for many years was most successful. He later failed in business and the large branch of the Pace tobacco business in Richmond occupies the site of his former factory.

Two years ago Captain Greener decided to come to Hampton Roads and make his home with his son.

Last of Richmond Grays.

Captain Greener's death removes the last surviving member of the original roster of the Richmond Grays.

Captain Greener was twice married. His first wife was Miss Catharine Bonn, of Baltimore. The second wife, who with four children survives him, was Miss Anna Benson, of Richmond. The surviving children are Mrs. Scarff, of Baltimore, and Messrs. William Greener, of Newport News, and J. H. Greener, Jr., and Charles Greener, of Raleigh avenue.

Four widowed sisters, all of whom live in Richmond, also survive him, as follows: Mrs. Margaret White, Mrs. Henry Riddick, Mrs. Rosa Johnston and Mrs. Elizabeth Williams.

While living in Richmond Captain Greener joined the St. John's Episcopal church of that city.
